California Council on Teacher Education

and Help Shape the Profession

The primary benefits of membership in the California Council on Teacher Education are:

◆ Involvement in Spring and Fall Semi-Annual Conferences;

• Subscriptions to two CCTE-sponsored journals, Teacher Education Quarterly and Issues in Teacher Education, plus CCNews, a periodic newsletter, and other mailings, Conference announcements, etc.;

- Participation in ongoing deliberations about teacher education policy in California;
- ◆ Linkages through CCTE to national organizations in the field;
- Awareness of issues and developments in teacher education research and practice;

• Opportunities to meet, exchange information, and socialize with other California teacher educators.
