

CADDO GAP PRESS ANNOUNCES PUBLICATION OF

The War Schools of Dobrinja: Reading, Writing, and Resistance during the Siege of Sarajevo

BY DAVID M. BERMAN

A carefully researched and eloquently written case study of the war schools of Dobrinja.

From the Preface
by David M. Berman:

This book . . . is difficult to write . . . , perhaps a schizophrenic attempt at best to write an academic analysis of an intensely human experience, of a struggle for survival under the most desperate of conditions, of a struggle to save the children of Dobrinja. In academic terms, this book is a case study of the war schools of Dobrinja set within the background of schooling throughout the besieged city of Sarajevo. In more human terms, this is the story of the teachers and students of Dobrinja, the students who asserted their right to their education and the teachers who answered their call . . .
